DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-22, drawn to a method for responding to injury of an excitable tissue by administering a sodium channel blocker, a non-specific protease inhibitor, and a corticosteroid, classified in class 424 subclass 94.2.

Group II, claims 23 and 24, drawn to compositions comprising a sodium channel blocker, a non-specific protease inhibitor, a corticosteroid, and a pharmaceutically acceptable carrier, classified in class 514 subclass 171.

Group III, claims 25-29, drawn to a kit comprising a sodium channel blocker, a non-specific protease inhibitor, and a corticosteroid, classified in class 514 subclass 19.

Applicant is further required to elect for examination purposes a single disclosed species of injury, such as for example an injury to the brain, an injury to the heart, or an injury to the spinal cord.

The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

Misnumbered claim 25-28 been renumbered to 26-29. It is noted that there are two claims numbered 25, the examiner has interpreted claim the second claim 25 stating "The kit of claim 24, further comprising separate containers for storing the sodium channel blocker, the non-specific protease inhibitor, and the corticosteroid." to actually be claim 26 upon which dependent claims 27-29 would depend.

The inventions listed as Groups I, II and III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reason:

Under lack of unity rules, unity of invention exists only when there is a technical relationship among the claimed inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression "special technical features" is defined as meaning those technical features that define a contribution which each of the inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. The "contribution over the prior art" is considered with respect to novelty and inventive step. Further, under Markush practice, all alternatives must have a common property AND (i) common structure must be present in all alternatives or (ii) all alternatives must belong to a recognized class of chemical compounds. See PCT Rule 13.1 and 13.2; see also MPEP 1850.

Here, the only corresponding technical feature between the Group I invention and the Group II claims is the mixture of "a sodium channel blocker, a non-specific protease inhibitor, and a corticosteroid". U.S. Patent 5,397,771 in column 4 line 9 through column 5 line 61 discloses a pharmaceutical composition comprising "a sodium channel blocker, a non-specific protease inhibitor, and a corticosteroid". Specifically in column 4 line 13 "cortisone" and other corticosteroids are mentioned, in column 4 line 67 "lidocaine", a sodium channel blocker, is mentioned, and in column 5 lines 27-28, protease inhibitors are mentioned. The corresponding special technical feature therefore lacks novelty and there can be no contribution over the prior art that the corresponding special technical feature makes.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
